A Post-Apocalyptic Fight for Survival Angela has moved Safe Haven to the post-apocalyptic Mountains of Georgia to make their stand. She has put a plan in motion that will free them all or get them all killed. For her, everything since the apocalypse has come down to this moment. Its what shes been training for, what her men have tried to prepare her for, but only fate knows if it will be enough. Kendle isnt adjusting well to being among her own kind. She doesnt like any of them. Theyre not serious enough in her opinion, not hard enough to deserve an angel like Marc, who she is drawn to against her will. She wants to spill blood, but as far as Safe Haven is concerned, she couldnt care less if they all live or die. Their fight for survival isnt hers. Samantha has a vital mission. Her role is one that Neil and Jeremy would never have allowed. Samanthas time to prove herself has come and shell need all of her strength, her concentration, to accomplish it. She has a hard job in their apocalypse plan and if she fails, she will die. Sam wouldnt have that any other way. The Eagles are tired of the drama. They want things back the way they were and after this fight for survival, they will make sure it happens. Angela is who they will support if she saves them all, even against Marc. The camp members feel the same. They will follow whoever gives them freedom from the apocalypse. The Government is counting on the chaos. News of the angels gathering has reached the bunker and those in charge are confident that they can sweep in and grab the paranormal people while everyone is distracted. They will kill the rest. There are too many descendants, too many future dangers. If the government doesnt do something now, they arent likely to get such a good chance again. Having all that magic in one place is a mistake that the government plans to take advantage of. Theyve sent Major John Donner to handle the situation. Major Donner has studied the descendants and their inner angels his entire military career. He spends months at a time underground with them in the labs. He knows them better than anyone on the governments payroll. Hes the guy they call to recapture paranormal escapees or to hunt down new angels. His family has served in this manner for a century. His name is whispered with loathing among descendants and soldiers alike. He is brilliant, he is ruthless, and the post-apocalyptic government has turned him loose.
